JUNIOR I CLASS

Last Will and Testament

The members of the 1948 Senior Class of Goshen High School, being of unsound mind, of weak heart, and having but a few short hours to dwell among the horrors and the trials and tribulations of our high school days, do make and declare this our last will and testament.

To our Principal, Miss Lawson, we will a bottle of hair dye, that she may relieve herself of any gray hairs which may have been caused by us during the annual and we know they are many.

I, Jean Sanders, bequeath my ability to skip class to Haveard Rainey.

I, Margaret Bullock, bequeath the annual and all its troubles to Betty Zane Johnson.

I, Peggy Seymour, bequeath my flirting ability to Martha Mae Bryan.

I, Glendolyn Floyd, finding it hard but necessary to leave Curry Carlisle alone in dear old Goshen High, will him reluctantly to Dorothy Witherington, but with the warning that he is to be looked at and not touched.

I, Hazel Snider, bequeath my "Beautiful long hair" to Brunese Flowers.

I, Helen McLeod, bequeath my ability to become engaged to Frances Walker.

I, Eunice Knotts, bequeath by quietness to Pinkney Horn.

I, Jane Carter, bequeath my "A" average to Walter Reddock.

I, Danabel Linton, bequeath my knowledge to work geometry to Billy Byrd, who is very much in need of help.

I, Doris Linton, bequeath my talking ability to Lochran Nixon.

I, Mary Cowart, bequeath my formula of reducing to Nadine Johnson.

I, Ruth Henderson, bequeath my frightened way to Henry Wiley Carter.

I, Sybil Raley, bequeath my ability to take others sweethearts to Jack Carlisle.

I, Rebecca Hughes, bequeath my ability to have fun to Tom Richburg.

I, Dollie Bradley, bequeath my privilege to sit by your sweetheart at all times to Betty Jean Wilkins.

I, Mary Cathon Thomas, bequeath my ability to never be without a boy friend to Betty Jean Phillips.

I, Lillian Thomas, bequeath my ability to come to school each day to Helen Lee.

I, Perry Sanders, bequeath my working perseverence to Jimmy King.

I, Donald Johnson, bequeath my ability to get along with girls to Randall Johnson.

I, William Warren, bequeath my ability to be big and strong to Dan Linton.

I, Billy Wilkes, bequeath my ability to drive reckless and still keep my license to David Saunders.

I, Morris Davis, bequeath my business position as manager of the basketball team to Karell Gardner.

I, Ervin Jeffcoat, bequeath my ability as captain and high point man of the basketball team to Curry Carlisle.

I, Quincey Carter, bequeath my curley hair to Billy Galloway.

I, Margaree Mitchell, bequeath my intelligent mind to Paul Howard.

DOLLIE BRADLEY, LAWYER.

"When Day Is Done"

When day is done, and setting sun
Sets on these seniors from our school,
May God in heaven see His way,
To guide each foot step all the day,
And teach us how to carry on
When the road gets rough and long,
May we laugh, and sing, and love
Under skys of blue above.
And when we stop to pray,
We'll thank God who gave us today.

Margaret Bullock.

As we leave you, Goshen, we leave a part of youth that we can never reclaim, and we carry with us memories that will never fade. We wish to thank each teacher, each friend and all who have inspired us to go in the world with highest hopes.

OUR ALMA MATER

Goshen High Alma Mater, thy name we'll e'er cheer
For you've guarded six years of our youth
You have shown us the way to form friendships so dear
And have pointed the pathway to truth.

We have given our hopes, all of our loyalties
To maintain higher standards for you,
May the gold never tarnish, the purple ne'er fade
Till the dreams of our youth have come true.
